Crawl

Staind

I'm so lonely
You're so beautiful
Not the only

One that's pitifulScratched and torn I lay here in pieces Craving all of your deadly vices Like to think that I'm not addicted

> But I guess I wear it wellAnd I crawl While you spit

> > And I crawl

Through youHere I am now

Not a lot has changed

Nothing' better

Everything's the sameLate at night I can hear your voices
Talking shit about all my choices

You would think you've known me forever

Just because you know my nameAnd I crawl

While you spit

And I crawl

Through youEverything falls apart

Everything

Everything

Everything Everything falls apart

Everything

Everything

EverythingAnd I crawl

While you spit

And I crawl

Through
