

Worn Out Words

Satanic Surfers

Worn out words and platitudes, the more they talk the less we understand

Shoved around in circles

Like pieces of dirt while the oppressive forces alter back and forth

Between left and right (x2) You went caught in the middle

Between a rock and a hard place Raise their own salaries,

Increase the gap of social standards between themselves and the people they're supposed to represent Someone
please explain

(Someone please explain)

Tell me where's that welfare state that they speak so highly of

Yeah, tell me where's that welfare state that they speak so highly of

Do we need more people living on the streets,

Do we need more people living on the streets before they'll open up their eyes? Choose between the lesser of two evils,

Vote for none of the above, do we really have a choice anyway?

Should we choose between the lesser of two evils,

Vote for none of the above and do we really have a choice anyway? Raise their own salaries,

Increase the gap of social standards between themselves and the people they're supposed to represent Someone
please explain

(Someone please explain)

Tell me where's that welfare state that they speak so highly of

Yeah, tell me where's that welfare state that they speak so highly of

Do we need more people living on the streets,

Do we need more people living on the streets before they'll open up their eyes?
