

Creative Captivity

August Burns Red

This is a barren wasteland
A lonely place
Where inspiration goes to die
Rescue the beauty that's left
Restore the character that's long since gone
Because these colors must never fade
This beat must carry on
We will fight to save this
We will fight to keep it alive
This is a 'cause worth fighting for
We will rescue and restore
We will fight to save this
We will fight to keep it alive
This is a 'cause worth fighting for
We will rescue and restore
