

Daddy Buy Me a Girl

Golden Earring

When only a little baby
I already was rich
Wealthy mother and father
Gave me all I could wish
Precious toys things I just wanted
Crowding the park and the stabely house
Girls were thinking they loved me
Affecting wasn't for sale
The only time I adored one
Thinking love was real fun
Soon it started to show that
Girls just wanted my dough
Gave her rings, daimonds
A minkcoat
Hoping these would make her see
That I'm much more than only money
Affection wasn't for sale
Daddy buy me a girl
Daddy buy me a girl
You can spend all of your money
To make sure she calls me honey
Rich or poor all same crazy about me
