

Sunday Drive

Maeda Atsuko

Honey, want to see
What you, what you can be
 You, you make it easy
For me to want to know you
 I can't pretend to hate you
Cause I will always love you
And when you try to leave me
 I wanna say
 Please don't go
 I need your love
Waiting for the rain to behave
 So you come around
Take me on a Sunday drive
 Please don't go
 I need your love
Waiting for the rain to behave
 So you come around
Take me on a Sunday drive
 Wait, to the end
 Who will you defend?
 See what I can do
 With this life
 That was made for two
 I can't pretend to hate you
Cause I will always love you
And when you try to leave me
 I wanna say
 Please don't go
 I need your love
Waiting for the rain to behave
 So you come around
Take me on a Sunday drive
 Please don't go
 I need your love
Waiting for the rain to behave
 So you come around
Take me on a Sunday drive
 I can't pretend to hate you
Cause I will always love you

And when you try to leave me
I wanna say
Please don't go
I need your love
Waiting for the rain to behave
So you come around
Take me on a Sunday drive
Please don't go
I need your love
Waiting for the rain to behave
So you come around
Take me on a Sunday drive
