Nothing At All

Hedley

You think you're better than me
But you're nothing at all
You're nothing at all
You think you got the best of me
But you're nothing at all
You're nothing at all
It's never gonna be okay
If I can't believe in you and me
We're never gonna be okay
If what I get is what I see
If it burns it's gonna be okay
But I can't erase what you say
My saving graces, you're nothing at all
You're nothing at all
You think you're number one
But you're nothing at all
You're nothing at all
You think you might have won
But you're nothing at all
You're nothing at all
It's never gonna be okay
If I can't believe in you and me
We're never gonna be okay

If I what I get is what I say
If it burns it's gonna be okay
But I can't erase what you say
My saving graces, you're nothing at all
You're nothing at all
We'll never chance another night away
But I can't erase what you say
My saving graces, you're nothing at all
Nothing at all, whoa
I'm so breakable, I'm so breakable, I'm so breakable, I'm so breakable
I'm so breakable, I'm so breakable, I'm so breakable, I'm so breakable
If it burns it's gonna be okay
But I can't erase what you say
My saving graces, you're nothing at all
Nothing at all

We'll never chance another night away
But I can't erase what you say
My saving graces, you're nothing at all
Nothing at all, whoa
Nothing, whoa, at all, whoa
