

Watermelon Weather (With Eddie Fisher)

Perry Como

It's watermelon weather
That summer kind of weather
When people get together and sing It's the time of year
The stars seem to dance with laughter
And the moon's so big and ripe
It can hardly climb So, why don't you meander
To your best gal's veranda
And sorta, kinda, hand her the ring? For it's the sweetheart kissin' season
And all the world's in rhyme
When it's watermelon sweet love tellin' time This is the time to sing this kind of purdy little ditty
A walkin' along an' singin' a song and clinging to someone purdy
The type of a tune to go with the moon
That's sailin' along a way on high After strollin' a while, for maybe a mile
Remember to stop and pop the question
If your timin' is right, your future is bright
As bright as a watermelon sky And then when you found a bench for two
You found your cue to linger
The chance you sought to show what you bought
You happily thought to bring her To cinch the thing, you give her the ring
You purchased from the five and dime Take her in your arms and whisper
That you are mine all mine
And with that line to sell, I'm here to tell
That you'll do well in watermelon time For it's the sweetheart kissin' season
And all the world's in rhyme
When it's watermelon sweet love tellin' time
