

Racing Gloves

Plumtree

I should think before i speak
I could learn to keep my mouth closed
I'm so contradictory
That by now you oughta' knowEighteen years and a comfortable haircut
Really don't mean very muchAnd they say
Can't believe that
You want to leave it
Behind
You know that
I don't see it
When it's mine
I don't want you
To see me try
Never to see me tryYou make me feel obscene
Acting so divine
But it isn't how it seems
Do you really find
Do you really think you're smarter than me
Do you say it deliberately
Do you really think you're smarter than me
Do you say it deliberately
