

Ordinary Girl

Sean Kingston

It felt great when I met you, something to remember
Body looking right, cool like in December
We should take a flight, one way wherever
'Cause your eyes take me away You're like an angel in the sky, you got wings
When you arrive it's like a midnight dream
And I can't lie, you got that tease
And shorty please don't walk away Girl, you're different from the girls I see
Diamond in the rough, your smile takes me away
So many girls, it's hard for me to choose
No matter where you go I'm stuck on you Oh, it's so hard to look away
'Cause you're no ordinary girl
She got that thing, you can't deny
Something about your aura says
That you're no ordinary girl
Exceptional, one of a kind
And when we wake up in the morning and we look outside
It was the same every day after you walked by
She ain't an ordinary girl, not an ordinary girl Girl you are the one, I can tell by over
Girl, you shine bright, brighter than my nightlight
We should spend the night, chillin, watch the sun rise
Words can't express how I feel (no way!) The way you pick me up when I am down
Yea you talk to my moms when I'm not around
Yea you showed me love that I've yet to find
So forever I'm here to stay yeaaa Girl, you're different from the girls I see
Diamond in the rough, your smile takes me away
So many girls, it's hard for me to choose
No matter where you go I'm stuck on you Oh, it's so hard to look away
'Cause you're no ordinary girl
She got that thing, you can't deny
Something about your aura says
That you're no ordinary girl
Exceptional, one of a kind
And when we wake up in the morning and we look outside
It was the same every day after you walked by
She ain't an ordinary girl, not an ordinary girl Girl you're not so ordinary, not so ordinary
Girl you're not so ordinary
So where you wanna go?
Girl you're not so ordinary, not so ordinary
So where you wanna go? Oh, it's so hard to look away

'Cause you're no ordinary girl
She got that thing, you can't deny
Something about your aura says
That you're no ordinary girl
Exceptional, one of a kind
And when we wake up in the morning and we look outside
It was the same every day after you walked by
She ain't an ordinary girl, not an ordinary girl
