I Am Home

Red Rocks Worship

I'm falling at Your feet in full surrender
Weary from wandering, You pull me closer
The kindness in Your eyes, Your love I can't deny
I'm falling at Your feetI am home, I am home here with you
I'm not alone I am home here with YouDon't need to earn the love You give so freely
Nothing can take the Cross You took on for me
The kindness in Your eyes Your love,
I can't deny I'm falling at Your feet
You took the shame off me
And carried the weight so I could breathe
Oh, You welcome me home
You put a song in me
And gave me the words so I could sing
Oh, You welcome me home
