

Avalanche

Hundred Reasons

The avalanche
we strode towards is nothing too us at all with all its force we know it cannot ever conceive to stand in our way [CHORUS]condescending
chased it to well
we're the first ones

start our lives here and changing patterns dont take a toll we wont forget why we are here with our hands held together, the clouds part
as if they knew not to stand in our way [Chorus]x2
