Worlds Apart

Emil Bulls

Now that we're worlds apart
I feel like a lesser man all balance outta control state of mind strange and vain good night sleep tight I can't get a shut eye my spirit dissappears like breath on a mirrorI need you more than you will ever know you've come to mean the world to me
I wonder if you're sleeping while I'm crying in my beer
we're worlds apart
I wish you were hereSame song different verse I let you down again all excuses useless I'm the one to blame a love's at stake
a life goes down the drain for a temporary fix some go far beyond the paleI need you more than you will ever know
you've come to mean the world to me
I wonder if you're sleeping while I'm crying in my beer
we're worlds apart
I wish you were hereI shot poisoned frozen hung stabbed electrocuted I burned my soul to the groundI need you more than you will ever know
you've come to mean the world to me
I wonder if you're sleeping while I'm crying in my beer
we're worlds apart
I wish you were here
