

No One Like You

Jessica Mauboy

Got used to being alone
That I hate the pain of a broken heart
That love thing I tried it
Over and over 'til I got tired And I never wanted to keep a smile up
Can't deny it was make-up to cover up
All of the pain I felt inside but you came in
And made everything right You came into my life, my heart's brand new
And now I give my all, my all to you
It's that kind of love, it's that kind of love, love
'Cause no matter if I'm down I can count on you And I'll be crazy if I ever lose you
No one comes close to ya, there'll be no one like ya
No one else in the world
'Cause there's no one like you You came and kissed my tears away
And now there's nothing left to say
You came in and saved me
And now I'm ready for love Now I look to you without a fear in my heart
It's guarantee that we will never part
'Cause you love me and I love you
There's no way that I will ever leave no You came into my life, my heart's brand new
And now I give my all, my all to you
It's that kind of love, it's that kind of love, love
'Cause no matter if I'm down I can count on you And I'll be crazy if I ever lose you
No one comes close to ya, there'll be no one like ya
No one else in the world
'Cause there's no one like you I've swim an ocean and I've climbed a mountain top
I've fought the battles and lost it all 'cause nothing returned
Why not give it up I thought to myself 'til there was you
I got another chance with you You came into my life, my heart's brand new
And now I give my all, my all to you
It's that kind of love, it's that kind of love, love
'Cause no matter if I'm down I can count on you And I'll be crazy if I ever lose you
No one comes close to ya, there'll be no one like ya
No one else in the world
'Cause there's no one like you You came into my life, my heart's brand new
And now I give my all, my all to you
It's that kind of love, it's that kind of love, love
'Cause no matter if I'm down I can count on you And I'll be crazy if I ever lose you
No one comes close to ya, there'll be no one like ya
No one else in the world

'Cause there's no one like you
