

Raise the Bar

Tamar Braxton

I thought that I knew
Everything about it
But then came you
And ain't no doubt about it
Like I wished on a star
You, you, you, you raised the bar
And here I thought I been though it all
But I can honestly say that you broke down every wall
You're the best by far
You, you, you, you raised the bar And every wrong
Turn that I made
And every scar, and every burn, and every pain
Lead me to you
Lead me to you Turned my body into the deepest sea
Swam deep in this water of love
I ain't afraid to say you blew my mind from the start
You, you, you, you raised the bar
Oooh can't nobody do me like you
Cause you're the first, the only man on this earth that I trust to give my heart to Really you, you, you, you raised the bar And every wrong turn that I made
Every scar, every burn, and every little pain
Lead me to you
Lead me to you Oh babe And every love that I didn't get right
And every last tear that I cried
Lead me to you baby
Lead me to you Don't know what I did before
I met your sexy ass
And changed the score
I couldn't ask for more than who you are Cause baby you, you, you, you raised the bar And every wrong turn that I made every scar, every burn, every pain
Lead me to you
Lead me to you
Lead me to you
Lead me to you
