

Black Crosses (feat. Sir Priz)

Replayy

*Sir Priz*

I'm rocking skinny jeans and pink vans
What on earth are you saying
Why you copying my style
I'm the swag killer so now I'm on trial
And why you in denial
Your mixtapes is trash, don't worry I recycle
Don't worry I recycle
(???) don't give that shit a title

*Replayy*

Bitch!

I be on that real shit
I be on that Vietnam kill shit
I got a fucking step dad but he need to step back before I put him in the trash
No reason to brag
I was born to shit like I came from my mothers ass
And why the fuck you looking at me
All of my songs booking like all my songs got acne

*Sir Priz*

"Like I don't like your cockiness"

*Replayy*

Well I don't fucking care
Shoot you one time and we fucking leave you there
Well I like Donald Trump
Black posses dead bodies in the trunk
Started from the bottom, I came up from nothing
Niggas started fronting, I just kept stunting
Cops came for me, friends started running
My friends all fake but life's a dick saw it coming
Damn it's crazy how it turned out
I ain't an actor I'm a rapper now
Knoxville is so different now
People doing stuff and talking shit that they're not about
Look me in my eyes

But do it quick because it could be your last time
I like the drugs so I'm nothing you should try
Life's a train I've been so long for the ride
But some rides aren't quicker then others
Now I know my side like we in love with eachother
Take your girl and eat the bitch out for supper
And say fuck the FBI and fuck your bitch undercover nigga
Bitches really think I'm playing
Bitch I'm being for real
Running this shit, Johnny Manziel
Your mixtape could be a boat and your mixtape still wouldn't sell
I be going hard nigga
Get her wet like an aquarium
I make her clap like a stadium
You niggas soft, but I'm as hard as titanium
Replayy, you know who I are
You don't need a telescope to see I'm a star
Yeah bitch, you don't need a toilet to see that I'm the shit
Yeah. and I'm still rolling
Cops on the street but I'm still smoking
Fuck the police, see the chain and that's all me
