Hudson Line

Mercury Rev

You don't need much money to ride the silver train
Just enough to keep yourself from sleeping in the rain
Satellites are chasing silver clouds away
Technicolor raindrops wash gum balls down the drainGonna leave the city, hop a train tonight
Gotta one-way ticket, the moon is shining bright
Gonna leave the city, catch the Hudson Line
'Cause you know I love the city but I haven't got the timeSatellites are chasing the silver clouds away
Mercury's are falling, yeah, who forgot to pray
Silver trains will whistle, glisten by the moon
Molly has her kite and Joe has his balloonsSatellites are chasing silver clouds away
I'm stuck on the tracks to sleep away the dayGonna leave the city, hop a train tonight
Gotta one-way ticket, the moon is shining bright
Gonna leave the city, catch the Hudson Line
'Cause you know I love the city but I haven't got the time
