Me Oh My (Quiet Village Remix)

Bryan Ferry

Me oh my, I can't believe my eyes
Everything I care about is gone
I wonder whyLife is tough, no matter how I try
Tell me that I'm dreaming
Tell me it's a lieMe oh my, show me that you're mine
Can't you hear my beating heart
Go in and out of timeMe oh my, I can't go on What can I believe in
Now that you're goneRing phone ring, a telephone line
Can't you hear my beating heart
Go in and out of time
Me oh myOut of my mind, out of the blue
Something incredible, so deja vu
How many times, broken in two
Maybe the same thing'll happen to youMe oh my, my world gone wrong
Running out, running out
Of everything I wantRing phone ring, a telephone line
Can't you hear my beating heart
Go in and out of time
Me oh myOut of my mind, out of the blue
Something incredible, so deja vu
How many times, broken in two
Maybe the same thing'll happen to youNothing is real, nothing is true
Wish I could say the same thing about you
How many times, broken in two
Wish I could stay, but I'm just passing through
