

Give Myself to You

Train

When I find out who I am,
I'm gonna know just what to do
When I pull myself together again,
I'm gonna give myself to youIs this forever,
 This feeling I got?
 Not enough and too much
 So free and so caught up
 In something and nothing
 Both at the same time
 I'm either and out of my head
 Or I'm out of my mindIs this forever,
 This feeling that I'm not moving at all,
 That I just can't stop?
 It's like I'm dreaming and I'm wide awake too
 Will you remember me?
'Cause I won't forget youI guess I was saving my life for later
 But maybe I should have been giving myself to you
 Now I will, but I got to find out who I am before I do
