

Gypsy

Dio

(Yeah... Gypsy!)She was straight from Hell
But you never could tell
Cause you were blinded by her lightShe could crack your brain
With magic pain
And turn a paler shade of whiteWell, I was on the free
Just me and me
And just about to sailWhen I heard the voice
Said: "You got a choice:
The hammer or the nail" You'll be ridin'
You'll be ridin' on the gypsy
On the gypsy!Well, I rolled the bones
To see who'd own
My mind and what's withinAnd it's a given rule
That we're all fools
And need to have a little sinSo I'm ridin'
Well, I'm ridin' on the gypsy
On the gypsy queen!She was straight from Hell
But you never could tell
Cause you were blinded by her lightSo she cracked my brain
With magic pain
And turned my left around to right, right?So I'm ridin'
I'm still ridin'
Yes I'm ridin' on... on the gypsy
On the gypsy queen...
