

Love Song

Ampop

Our live is set,
A gamble, a pointed gun
At the end of the day
The shadow hides the sun
No matter how I try to bend my fate

All of a sudden I met you
I felt as reborn
And we had the time of our lives
Together as one
But when you got ill
You were taken away
Now you are gone

I like to choose and decide
I have so much to say
But, someone so blind above
Has chosen my way
No matter how I try to bend my fate

Will I meet someone like you?

I look around me
My mind is falling apart
Thinking about you
Really brakes my heart
No matter how I try to let it go
