

Silhouette

Wovenwar

You've got a way of finding
Piecing me an incomplete
A silhouette, you exhibit
So you never have to claim defeat
'Cuz somehow, someway, someone found a reason to betray
Maybe I can be your shelter
Maybe I can be safety
This silhouette, you exhibit
Will never let you be complete
'Cuz somehow, someway, someone chose to throw this love
Away from this
You can find me waiting when you're ready
Away from this
Lay your torment down 'cuz I am with you now
Somehow, someway, finding a way to love again
Lay your torment down
It's okay I'm with you now
It's okay I'm with you now
Away from this
You can find me waiting when you're ready
Away from this
Lay your torment down 'cuz I am with you now
