

Better Off Alone

The Black Angels

I forget what made me want to walk away, but I did It might not have been the smartest choice But
it s the one that I made You deserve so much more then me Your
worth so much more then I could ever see
What could have been,
ill never know
But you re so much, so much better off alone Is it wrong to want you back
After all that I did I
know I was wrong
I know I
screwed up
But I find myself
wanting your love
What would it take to make your heart turn my way
Even though it would be a waste I remember how you liked to dance
So thought id make you move the best that I can So go on and dance, just dance Cuz
this is your victory dance Away
from this stupid man
