

Angel

Alice Peacock

Somehow I know that somehow you can hear me
Already I can feel your little heartbeat
Wherever you may be tonight I'm sending you this lullaby
Angel Impatiently I've waited for the longest time
To feel your hand in mine
Angel May the heavens hold you close in perfect peace
Until you find me
My angel So many nights I've cried myself to sleep dear
And wondered why you're not already right here
I feel my heart might break in two I've so much love to give to you
I know that you'll be sent here from up above
And you'll be the perfect combination of God's grace and love
