

The Biggest Lie

Dolorean

I'm waiting for the train
Subway that only goes one way
A stupid thing that'll come to pull us apart
 Make everybody late
 You spent everything you had
 Wanted everything to stop that bad
And now I'm a crushed credit card registered to Smith
 Not the name that you call me with
 You turned white like a Saint
I'm tired of dancing on a pot of gold flake paint
 Oh we're so very precious, you and I
And everything that you do makes me want to die
 Oh I just told the biggest lie
 I just told the biggest lie
 The biggest lie
