

In The Hands Of Time

Hardline

(Joey Gioeli, Johnny Gioeli, Neal Schon)

Alright, oh yeah

Living every moment, holding on to a dream

Staring at an empty page, winter comes to me

And I wonder, will the light ever shine on me

If it's a mountain I must climb then that's the way it must be

Oh, day after day, like a lifetime away, I keep holding on

And night after night, I reach out of sight from it all

Oh day after day, I won't walk away from this dream of mine

Whoah yeah, it's in the hands of time

Living every moment, with a dream burning bright

Never stop reachin' when the dream shines its light

Will I take it for granted, when the tryin's all set and done

Your's the pain of rememberin' fragrant dreams are one

Oh, day after day, fight the storm, sing a pray and keep holding on

Night after night, I'll be your light on your way

Oh day after day, I won't walk away from this dream of mine

Whoah yeah, it's in the hands of time

(Solo)

Day after day, like a lifetime away, I keep holding on

Night after night, and I'll be your light on your way

Day after day, I won't walk away from this dream of mine

Whoah yeah, it's in the hands of time
