The Cult

Drop all your
You ain't got nothing to say My girls no flirt she can walk and she walks like she talksMy girl fade away she got diamonds every day don't even when she walks away
she's all mine
she decidesShe's got diamonds
on the inside
my girl
she's got diamonds
on the insideshe watch the world fade away
---
ignore every look that you throw down and she stands around
