Dreaming In Color

Dame

I don't watch sad reruns, I wanna feel the new day that comes
And if I make mistakes, well that's all right
I'd rather fall and take the sting, then let somebody clip my wings
I know eventually I'll learn to fly, yeah yeahI see the world how it could be
Dreaming in color
It looks so beautiful to me
Dreaming in colorIn reds and blues a thousand hues
Coming in clear and bright
We don't have to live in black and white
Dreaming in colorWhen everything is looking gray and nothing's really going my way
Everybody tells me that I shoot too high
I won't let it shake me no, no, there's a secret place that I go
All I have to do is stop and I close my eyes, yeah yeahI see the world how it could be
Dreaming in color
It looks so beautiful to me
Dreaming in colorIn reds and blues a thousand hues
Coming in clear and bright
We don't have to live in black and white
Dreaming in colorIt's there to touch
It's there to feel
The world I've been dreaming of
One day I will make it realI see the world how it could be, yeah yeah
And I close my eyes, yeah yeahY see the world how it could be
Dreaming in color
It looks so beautiful to me
Dreaming in colorIn reds and blues a thousand hues
Coming in clear and bright
We don't have to live in black and white
Dreaming in color
