Yawns

Frightened Rabbit

Light infectious wind we breathe fills up the bored hole that lust leaves he yawns
she yawns as well
she yawns because she's bored he yawns because he can't sleep anymore they go out fill their mouths with drink and food so they don't have to speak and then in between courses they are gasping for air so they yawn and look at their feet she yawns
he yawns as well
she yawns because she's bored
she yawns
and he yawns as well he yawns because he's tired the girl that he slept with sleeps too soon tonight when she yawns she tells the truth where the boy she adores sits the man she's contracted to girl what of you and me admit that you're bored, you would bore electricity i've had enough of love, it just ends with two yawns in unison
