Sadie

The Spinners

In a world like today It's a rare occasion to be able To see young mothers like the ones That were around when I grew up But they live on in memory To quite a few of us And this song is dedicated To those who cherish that memory Early one Sunday morning Breakfast was on the table There was no time to eat She said to me, "Boy, hurry to Sunday school" Filled with her load of glory We learned the Holy story She'll always have her dreams Despite the things this troubled world can bring Oh, Sadie Don't you know we love you Sweet Sadie Place no one above you Sweet Sadie (Well, well, well) Living in the past Some times it seems so funny But no money will turn your life around Sweeter than cotton candy Stronger than papa's old brandy Always that needed smile Once in awhile she would break down and cry

Some times she'd be so happy
Just being with us and daddy
Standing the worst of times
Breaking the binds with just a simple song
Oh, Sadie (Oh, Sadie, baby)
Don't you know we love you (She'll love us all in a special way)
Sweet Sadie (Well, well, well)
Place no one above you
Sweet Sadie (Sweet Sadie livin' in the past)
Living in the past

Oh, she's never sinnin'
In love she's always winnin', yeah
Sadie (My, my, my, my)
Don't you know we love you (I love you, mama)

Sweet Sadie

Place no one above you (I just can't forget) Sweet Sadie (How you gave me love, oh, Lord)

Living in the past

If there's a heaven up above

I know she's teaching angels how to love

Sadie (It's a mean world without you)

Don't you know we love you

Sweet Sadie (All the love you showed)

Place no one above you (Oh, I could never, ever doubt her lovely word)

Sweet Sadie

Living in the past

Ain't it funny that in the end it's not money It's just the love
