L'onere (The Burden)

The Worn Flints

Yes I'll be your burden before I am through
Yes I'll be your burden before I am through

Like I've gone before
Oooh like I've been before

All that I know in this
Like my
I rather die at the gallows
Than be under

Oh I've seen this before
Oooh a thousand times before

And I've been here a long long long time
And I'm running
And I'm running for the door again

And I'll be your burden 'till the day that I die

Oooh I've seen this all before
