

Next 2 You (Demo)

Culture Club

It doesn't matter if I say you're right even when you're wrong
Or paint you as a hero or the chicks in every song
I roll my eyes to heaven, I recognize your flaws
But after all is said and done, I just want you more
Some people say I must be blind
But I'll have you over them any time
Oh, I wanna get next 2 you
Oh, I wanna get next 2 you
I wanna get next 2 you
While searching for perfection, I fell foul of your charms
Ti caro mi amico, I want to leave, I can't
These shoes are getting heavy, this cross is hard to bear
At least a life of misery is something we can share
Some people say I must be blind
But I'll have you over them any time
Oh, I wanna get next 2 you
Oh, I wanna get next 2 you
Oh, I wanna get next 2 you, yes, I do
Oh, I wanna get next 2 you
I wanna get next 2 you
Some people say I must be blind
But I'll have you over them any time
Oh, I wanna get next 2 you
Oh, I wanna get next 2 you
Oh, I wanna get next 2 you, yes, I do
