Ordinary

Barenaked Ladies

Don't you know we lost?
Sunk so low, we just called it off
How an ordinary moment gets tossed
More than ordinary woman's the cost
Thought I understood
Fought to buy the whole neighborhood
You ought to try, I told you so, it feels good
Bought it high and sold as low as I could
Believe me, believe me
Believe me, believe me
It's come undone, done
It's come undone, done
Have another look, another look around
Have another look around
Have another look, another look around
Have another look around
I can't stay too long
Can only play a handful of songs
How a melody can make up your mind
Take a memory and leave it behind
Believe me, believe me
Believe me, believe me
It's come undone, done
It's come undone, done
It's come undone
(Have another look, another look around)
Done
(Have another look around)
It's come undone
(Have another look, another look around)
Done
(Have another look around)
