Buried Alive

Ron Wood

Tired of meeting on my terms?
Too many low joints involved
Don't stick on me all your hurts
Stop for a while and just listen:

You're a good looking woman
Don't you know you're too young to die
Crazy looking mama
Don't you know you're too young to die

Well you should have been buried alive
'cause you're far to pretty to lie
Well you should have been buried alive
'cause you're far to pretty to die

You're knifing me where it hurts
I can only take so much
I would follow you a thousand miles
You're much to perfect to lose

Crazy looking mama
Don't you know you're too young to die
Crazy looking mama
Would have been better to lie
Well you should'a been buried alive
'cause you're far too pretty to die
Well you should have been buried alive
'cause you're far to pretty to die

Far too pretty to lie lie lie
Far too pretty to lie lie lie
Far too pretty to lie lie lie
Far to pretty far too pretty

Well you should'a been buried alive
'cause you're far too pretty to die
Well you should have been buried alive
'cause you're far to pretty to die
