Young, Dumb, And Stung

Say Anything

Don't care what you think, you think I care?
You humans can't see why pretty music came to be
I see where you stand, I'm standing here
So count the fuse flaming with me, one, two, three
Yeah, you won't be stopping me yet
Yeah, you won't be stopping me yet
Yeah, thought I was covered in sweat
Fast asleep in the bed you wet
I'm young, I'm dumb, I'm stung
(You bet I'm in it, you bet I'm in it)
(You bet I'm deep in the thick of it, baby)
I'm young, I'm dumb, I'm stung
(You bet I'm in it, you bet I'm in it)
(You bet I'm deep in the thick of it, baby)
Don't care what you think, you think I care?
I'll call you Richard, if you will, you bag of swill
Define your spine, you're standing in line
Death is a crutch for me and mine, we're singing
Yeah, you think you know me so well
Yeah, you think I'd purchase what you sell
Yeah, pickled in your private hell
I will scream and I will yell
I'm young, I'm dumb, I'm stung
(You bet I'm in it, you bet I'm in it)
(You bet I'm deep in the thick of it, baby)
I'm young, I'm dumb, I'm stung
(You bet I'm in it, you bet I'm in it)
(You bet I'm deep in the thick of it, baby)
When I was ten years young, my douche best friend
Decided that I was just not cool enough for him
My awkward frame and bucktooth grin
Were no accouterments for one with a new skin
Well, late last week I saw that man
He was far to high to grasp that I shook his hand
I've got my pride and my rock band
Singing words that he don't understand
Don't care what you think, you think I care?
(Don't care what you think, you think I care?)
Don't care what you think, you think I care?

(Don't care what you think, you think I care?)
I'm young, I'm dumb, I'm stung
(You bet I'm in it, you bet I'm in it)
(You bet I'm deep in the thick of it, baby)
I'm young, I'm dumb, I'm stung
(You bet I'm in it, you bet I'm in it)
(You bet I'm deep in the thick of it, baby)
I'm young, I'm dumb, I'm stung
I'm young, I'm dumb, I'm stung
Young, dumb, stung
Young, dumb, stung
