

Last Summer

French Horn Rebellion

Oh, oh Can you look at my knees
Can you really believe
That I scraped them up
While we climbed the tree, the tree
This was the best summer that I've ever had
Oh, oh Just take a look in my eyes
Take a look and you'll see
That the sun is up
Staring back at me, at me
This was the best summer that I ever had And it was fun
I want to wish the fall away
And I hope you stay the year
Oh, oh
It's so sad for me
Can't you tell on my knees
And my sun's been up
And she's unhappy, you see
She was the best summer that I ever had Oh, oh I used to dream that she Could come along with me
The one that keeps it all
Up inside of me but she
She was the best summer I could ever have And she loved me
Why couldn't I love her just the same?
And now she's gone for good
Gone for good
Fill my cup and I'm on my way
But didn't think I'd be there to stay
It's been so long
It's been so long
Mmm Since the feeling of believing was right
And it was time in the middle of the night
And it's been so long
It's been so long I want to remember
But the moment's now gone
I'd like to feel that the time wasn't wasted
But have I been wrong?
Going on, going on
