For You I'm Bleeding

Wolfsheim

darkness night
is masking the cold
that embraces me
can't you see
truth means fear
your lying breath
never will resist
alone i sit here waiting watching the world
in it's agony
because i have seen
my future
my crying face
no cure i'm longing for
and no healer
heals the evil
i sought truth for you
condemned to fail
for you, for you
i'm bleeding
and every new dawn
ends in bitterness ...
