Into The Abyss

Iron Fire

Standing on the edge, and I'm looking down
Into the darkness, everywhere and all around
I see people fall and lose their grounds
Another war and another thousand deaths
Everyday the streets are painted red
So many homeless without a bedI can't believe it's true
The end for me and you
O, Lord please tell me what to doWe are facing the final hour
The end of the suffering
The last page of the final chapter
You see the world fade away
Mother Earth has been torn apart
Not even God can save us now
But we are the children of the night
So hang on tight
Cause we are falling into the abyssSchoolchildren shoot and kill just for fun Young kids feel unsecure without a gun
You take your aim and then you try to run Unstable psycho high on dope pulls the trigger and then he uses the rope
Lost in a freak show without a hopeI can't believe it's true
The end for me and you
O, Lord please tell me what to doWe are facing the final hour
The end of the suffering
The last page of the final chapter
You see the world fade away
Mother Earth has been torn apart
Not even God can save us now
But we are the children of the night
So hang on tight
Cause we are falling into the abyssWe are facing the final hour
The end of the suffering
The last page of the final chapter
You see the world fade away
Mother Earth has been torn apart
Not even God can save us now
But we are the children of the night

So hang on tight
Cause we are falling
into the abyss
