

I Had a Dream

Freddie King

I had a dream last night, Lord it wasn't me
I dreamed the only woman I ever loved
People, turned her back on me
Let me tell you little more about the dream I dream of working a graveyard shift
For the long nights a week
When I left home my baby's in bed
My baby, she was fast asleep When I'm done sick of my job
And I had to go home
And when I got there my bed was empty
My baby she was gone It couldn't let this worry
It all happened in my sleep
All the things that has been so bad
And I don't want you from seven to seven next weekend And that's why, that's why, that's why I had a dream
Lord, that's worrying me
She's the only woman I ever loved, people
She's turned her back on me Baby, don't you know I had a dream last night
Don't you know that worries me
You know I had a dream last night
I had a dream, you were worrying me Just pick the way I was going people, yeah
