Every Time I Fall Back

Pat Benatar

I don't know if it's me or just the sign of the times
But I want a better life than the one I've been livin'
Ain't no one says that you can't change who you are
Ain't no law says you gotta take what you're givin'
I wanna find a place where the nights are warm
And the wind don't blow so cold against my skin
I wanna find some shelter, someone's arms
When I go too far I know that
Every time I fall back, you grab my shoulder
To keep me from fallin', every time I fall back
Your arms are open, I hear you callin' me
I believe that people are the same wherever you go
Everybody's seen their reflection
The face we wear is not our face at all
No, we've lost all direction
Don't wanna dance the dance of the fool no more
Don't wanna give away my soul for nothin'
Don't wanna sell myself door to door
I just wanna know that
Every time I fall back, you grab my shoulder
To keep me from fallin', every time I fall back
Your arms are open, I hear you callin' me
I don't know if it's me or just the sign of the times
I just wanna know that
Every time I fall back, you grab my shoulder
To keep me from fallin', every time I fall back
Your arms are open, I hear you callin' me
I hear you callin' me, I hear you callin' me
I hear you callin' me
