First In Line

Maarja

Constricted dreams that sleeps in my mind
Now seem to guide me in my daily life
I raise a glass for, those tears gone by
A ray of hope upon my newborn eyesI'm turning to the window
Full of memories
I'm turning to the frontstep
With keysI'm gonna get first in line
From a jack to a king
Wanting everything
Gonna get first this time
Letting go, my heart of stoneI'm gonna get first in line
From a jack to a king
Wanting everything
Gonna get first this time
Letting go, my heart of stoneGetting first in line, getting first this time
Letting everything go
Getting first this time, getting first in line
Let the whole world knowThis mighty sword's full of dust but it thrives
I wipe it clean and let it come alive
I'm all made up by the things that I feel
Too many words can turn your heart in to steelI'm turning to the window
Full of memories
I'm turning to the frontstep
With keysI'm gonna get first in line
From a jack to a king
Wanting everything
Gonna get first this time
Letting go, my heart of stoneI'm gonna get first in line
From a jack to a king
Wanting everything
Gonna get first this time
Letting go, my heart of stoneGetting first in line, getting first this time
Getting first this time, getting first in line
Let the whole world knowI'm turning to the window
Full of memories
I'm turning to the frontstep
With keysI'm gonna get first in line
From a jack to a king

Wanting everything
Gonna get first this time
Letting go, my heart of stoneI'm gonna get first in line
From a jack to a king
Wanting everything
Gonna get first this time
Wanting everything
Wanting everything
Let the whole world know
