Baptized By Fire

Lou Gramm

Girl, I know you're out for the money
Flesh for gold, diamond and fur
We've seen you workin' on every guy in this town
Trading your voodoo for the Bible of who's whoAll of your dreams you're searchin' for gold
I'm not too blind to see, you're kindYou were baptized by fire, painted by rain
You're under the spell, feelin' no shame
Baptized by fire, to you it's a game
You were baptized by fireFrom out of the trash to burnin' desire
Still this pouring rain in your heart
Will keep you spinnin' in the same direction
Can't you see it ripping your world apartAll of your dreams you're searchin' for gold
I'm not too blind to see, you're kindYou were baptized by fire, painted by rain
You're under the spell, feelin' no shame
Baptized by fire, to you it's a gameIt's a sign of the times
How people mess with your mind
One day they say, they love you
Then they leave you behind
It ain't you they want
It's you they hauntAnd the weaker they make you
The deeper they take you
Down 'til you don't know what you feel
What do you feel?
Well, I know your game, it's nothin' new, so
You can say good-bye to me 'cause I have
Said, "Good-bye to you"Voodoo child voodoo child
Voodoo voodoo voodoo voodoo child
Time to take my freedom, time to take control
Baby, 'cause I'm on a roll, hit itBaptized by fire, painted by rain
You're under the spell, feelin' no shame
Baptized by fire, to you it's a game
You were baptized by fireBaptized by fire, painted by rain
You're under the spell, feelin' no shame
Baptized by fire, to you it's a game
You were baptized by fire
