To the Country

Laura Veirs

Don't recognize my face
(Everybody knows your game)
Feel like I'm running in place
(Every thing's changed, every thing's changed)I'm gonna move to the country
(She's gonna move)
So I can see the stars
(Heavenly stars, the heavenly stars, the heavenly stars)She's gonna move
Heavenly stars, the heavenly stars, the heavenly starsI dove into the night
(Bathed in the beautiful blue light)
Sheltered inside a bat cave
(Me and my baby had a conversation)Gonna move to the country
(She's gonna move)
So I can see the stars
(Heavenly stars, the heavenly stars, the heavenly stars)I'm gonna move to the country
(She's gonna move)
So I can see the stars
(Heavenly stars, the heavenly stars, the heavenly stars)
