

Celebrate

Fields of the Nephilim

When the moment's right only moments rise
For the lesser blessed it's all promises
When the daughter's rise from their comas rise
For a lesser blessed it seems honest hereCelebrate
Give love and praise
Celebrate
For our lesser daysObsessions in your eyes the peril of my life
Where others fall you came back again
With no grace in mind to the magan blind
For a lesser God we'd seem honest hereAnd you'll turn you'll find new highways
And you'll turn but lady you'll burnThis moment's all you have it there
This moment hangs like your ragged hairCelebrate
Give love and praise
Celebrate
For our lesser daysWhen the moment's right only moment's rise
The eternal sea of silence the shadows of mankindAnd you'll turn you'll find new highways
And you'll turn you find new highwaysCelebrate here
Celebrate here please
For all you've changed me
Celebrate here
Celebrate here
Celebrate for our lesser days
