Please Don't Go

Immature

Baby please don't go
Please don't go
Stay right by my side
By my side
Baby please don't go
Please don't go
Stay right by my side
By my sideRainy days bring back memories of you
And I will never lie
I want you by my side
Thinking of you
Makes me not want you to go
Please stay, stay with meBaby please don't go
Please don't go
Stay right by my side
By my side
Baby please don't go
Please don't go
Stay right by my side
By my sideOh I can't face the fact
That I want you in my life
Don't go my love I'll show
My heart I send to you
You are my friend
Don't leave I'll do anything you needRainy days brings back memories
Rainy days brings back memories
Rainy days brings back memories of you
Rainy days, rainy days brings back memories
Rainy days brings back memories
Rainy days, brings back memories of you
Rainy days I think of youOh, baby please don't go, please don't go
Stay right by my side, stay by my side, by my side
Baby please don't go, please don't go
Stay right by my side, you're in my life, by my side
Oh yeah
RainRainy days, you, you, you, you
Please don't go
Please don't go
Rainy days, you, you, you, you

Stay right by my side
RainStay right by my side
Please don't go
Rainy days, you, you, you, you
Stay right by my side, by my side, in my life
Baby please don't go, please don't go, please stayI need you back in my life
Oh ya, by my side, oh ya
Don't go, baby please don't go
No, no, no, I want you back in my life, here
Please don't go, please don't go
Please don't go, please don't go
Don't run away, back in my life, baby
