

Good Times Coming / Feel the Sun

Paul McCartney

Good times comin', good times comin' in
Good times comin', good times comin' in
Good times comin', good times comin' in
Good times comin', good times comin' in I was thinkin' about that summer so long ago
Pack up your bags and yell, 'Geronimo'
That was a golden summer, wasn't it hot?
We laughed a lot that summer, laughed a lot Laughin' at the good times comin'
Laughin' at the good times comin' in
Good times comin'
Laughin' at the good times comin' in There was somethin' about the weather, what can I say?
Nothin' like any other holiday
That was a silly season, was it the best?
We didn't need a reason just a rest Happy at the good times comin'
Happy at the good times comin' in
Good times comin'
Happy at the good times comin' in I'm lovin' you, I'm lovin' you
I'm lovin' you now
I'm lovin' you, I'm lovin' you
I'm lovin' you now There was a golden summer before the war
They laughed a lot that summer, lah de dah Laughin' at the good times comin'
Laughin' at the good times comin' in
Good times comin'
Laughin' at the good times comin' in Good times comin', good, good
Good times comin' in, good, good
Good times comin' good, good
Good times comin' in, good, good
Good times comin', good times comin' in Feel the sun shine in, shine in, shine in
Feel the sun, shinin' in on you.
Feel the sun shine in, shine in, shine in
Feel the sun, shinin' in on you All of the beauty, all the pain
Will it ever be the same again?
If you love me, show me now
It's the only way that we know how Feel the sun shine in, shine in, shine in
Feel the sun shinin' in on you
Feel the sun shine in, shine in, shine in
Feel the sun shinin' in on you Feel the sun shine in, shine in, shine in
Feel the sun shinin' in on you
Feel the sun shine in, shine in, shine in
Feel the sun shinin' in on you Feel the sun shine in, shine in, shine in

Feel the sun shinin' in on you
Feel the sun shine in, shine in, shine in
Feel the sun shinin' in on you
