

Trail of Broken Hearts

Cher

So you captured a heart and you felt so proud coz you didn't wanna sleep alone It's your very first time and you think love's a game, it's not. People always tell you it's so romantic to live like a rolling stone. Well, the loneliness comes
And you lose control
The river of love can drown your soul As time leaves a trail of broken hearts
You should know before you start
That your heart is on the line. In the end
If you believe in love, my friend
Better keep your faith
Coz time leaves a trail of broken heart Broken hearts Do you know what it's like
When you need somebody
But somebody runs away
Well, you feel like dyin'
But you wish you were in her arms. Oh, you'd pay any bail just to break that jail
Coz you're scared that you'll never escape Well, the clock keeps tickin'
And it's running out fast
To find real love you'd better make it last Coz time leaves a trail of broken hearts... Life passes by like a slow down parade
You walk from the sidewalks as love fades away
In a world full of hearts there's only one you can save Well, the clock keeps tickin'
And it's running out fast
To find real love
Better make it last Coz time leaves a trail of broken heart...
