

Heaven

Joan Armatrading

Came into my life
Made me think that I was really something
Took me by surprise, someone with your charm
Looking my wayAm I in heaven?
Am I in heaven?
Am I in heaven?Have I gone up
Have I gone up
To the big cloud
Number nineHey you
Brought me out of my shell
I don't know why you care
But you do it wellStarted a dream
Dreaming made me see
Oh babe
You're so right for meAnd I wanna to be the sunshine when you're down
And I wanna be the apple of your eye
And I wanna be the one you run to'Cause I found the perfect someone
Who could take me in their arms and love me
I found the perfect someone
Who could take me in their arms and love meStarted a dream
Dreaming made me see
Oh babe
You're so right for meAnd I wanna to be the sunshine when you're down
And I wanna be the apple of your eye
And I wanna be the one you run to day and nightCame into my life
Made me think that I was really something
Took me by surprise, someone with your charm
Looking my wayAm I in heaven?
Am I in heaven?
Am I in heaven?Have I gone up
Have I gone up
To the big cloud
Number nineAnd I wanna to be the sunshine when you're down
And I wanna be the apple of your eye
And I wanna be the one you run to day and nightI wanna to be the sunshine when you're down
And I wanna be the apple of your eye
And I wanna be the one you run to day and night
