

To Whom Shall I Turn

The Caravans

when obstruction blocks my way
when i can't tell my nights from day to whom shall i turn, oh lord stretch forth thy mighty hand, rescue should i stray, father i know you can please lead the waywhen blinding tears fill my eyes
when i can't face this world with a smile
to whom shall i turn, oh lord
stretch forth thy mighty hand, rescue should i stray, father i know you can please lead the wayi turn to jesus i turn to jesusmy hope and my trust my hope and my trusthe'll deliver my soul he'll deliver my soulfrom trouble and striff from trouble and striffit's from your blood it's from your bloodthat we see and believe we see and believethat the love of God on the living breada strong tower a strong towerto go my stead
