The Fall

Imagine Dragons

maybe I'm broken
maybe I'm wrong
I could've spoken sooner than I should have only the good die old that's what they told me but I don't knowmaybe I'm breaking up with myself maybe I'm thinking I should just keep to the things that I've been told wait for the colors to turn to golddo you know do you know you're all I know
you're all I know
when everything comes crashing down
you're all I know
you're all I knowI'm ready for the fall I'm ready for everything that I believed in to drift away ready for the leaves ready for the colors to burn to gold and crumble awaymaybe I'm destined to be distraught always a reason breaking me down to my knees in the dead of night I keep on praying to see the light maybe I'm breaking up with myself
wait for the colors to turn to gold[repeat pre-chorus x2] [repeat chorus]you were the one (x3) who helped me seeyou were the one (x2) oh you gave it all to me[repeat bridge x6]I'm ready for the fall ready for the leavesready for the colors to burn to gold and crumble away
