Bad Guys

Emma Forman

I felt a little disillusioned last night
Seems like the truth is something nobody wants to hear
How unfashionable it is to be honest
The latest craze is lying through your teethWhy do the bad guys always seem to get it right?
Why do the bad guys always seem to win in real life?
Why do the bad guys always win?
Why do the bad guys always win?
Why do the bad guys always win?
Why do the bad guys always win?It's like those people who tried to hurt you just because you wanted a better way of life you worked so hard to get where you wanted to be but they worked even harder at tearing you apartWhy do the bad guys always seem to get it right?
Why do the bad guys always seem to win in real life?
Why do the bad guys always win?
Why do the bad guys always win?
Why do the bad guys always win?
Why do the bad guys always win?
